STRADARTE AND THE USE OF WORKS OF AUTHORSHIP PROTECTED IN THE FREE PRACTICE OF STREET ARTISTIC ACTIVITIES

Acquittance declaration

The user is aware that according to the law No. 633 dated 22nd, April 1941 and subsequent amendments and integrations, the creative works of authorship pertaining to literature, music, figurative art, architecture, theatre and cinematography, irrespective of their form of expression, are protected. The reproduction and/or public performance of a work under protection in the field of the artistic and expressive activity carried out by the user, presupposes that the artist / artists fulfil all the obligations connected with the use of works protected according to the terms provided for by the current legislation, providing themselves with the regular SIAE permit. With this automated service, the municipal administration allows the booking of city space for the free performance of street art, without any organizational feature of the proposed interventions. The user releases the administration from any and all liability concerning the protected works that could be used, from any legal and procedural fulfilments, with particular reference to the ones provided for by the Società Italiana Autori Editori (Italian Authors and Publishers Association).
